LOCAL MAN WOULD BUILD SCENIC ARIZONA HIGHWAY

WILL PRESENT PROPOSITION TO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
THURSDAY NIGHT

GRAND SYSTEM OF BOULEVARDS
WOULD TAKE IN NATURAL WONDERS AND PRINCIPAL CITIES OF TERRITORY.

In connection with the plan of the county board of supervisors, for a bond issue of $150,000, for the improvement of the highways of Gila county, Attorney George R. Hill will outline an interstate highway plan, at the big mass meeting this evening which, if carried out, will eclipse anything of its kind in the west.

This plan calls for the construction of a thoroughfare from Phoenix to Denver, taking in all of the wonders of nature to be found between these two cities.

Starting from the Capital city of the territory, this boulevard would run to the Roosevelt dam, one of the big engineering feats of the southwest. From this point, it would lead on past the natural bridge, one of the best specimens to be found anywhere in the United States, through the Mogollon forest, thence on past the Grand Canyon, to the petrified forest, thence into Colorado and on to Denver.

The advantages of a roadway of this character are easily apparent. It would afford one of the finest automobile highways to be found anywhere in the United States, as the scenic attractions along the way are unrivaled.

As the chambers of commerce of the different cities affected can be interested in the project, it is believed, to the end of meeting a part of the expense, it should not be difficult to finance the proposition, in the opinion of Mr. Hill, particularly as the individual expense of the different counties would be comparatively light.

Many of the counties of this territory are deeply interested in the good roads project, which is gaining such rapid favor in and around Globe. In fact, the movement seems to be almost general through Arizona. The hearty co-operation of the affected districts should not be difficult to secure, as the construction of a road of this character would be one of the best advertisements a community could secure.

From Roosevelt, the improvement of a road leading to Globe, which is contemplated in the proposed bond issue, would connect this city with the main Phoenix-Denver thoroughfare, not only making a good road from Globe to both Phoenix and Denver, but bringing to Globe hundreds of travelers who would naturally make the trip here in connection with the long jaunt between Arizona and Colorado.

As Mr. Hill's plan will undoubtedly meet the approval of the chamber of commerce, when it is presented next Thursday night, that body will in all probability take it up with other chambers of commerce which might be interested in the plan, to the end that the big highway scheme may be carried out.

Mr. Hill is highly enthusiastic in the local bond issue.

"I know of nothing else that would benefit the people of this county more than the improvement of the public roads, as is planned in the proposed bonding of the county to the extent of five $150,000, said Mr. Hill to the Silver Belt yesterday in speaking of the proposition.

"A few thousands of dollars spent on certain stretches of road leading from Globe to the important districts would work wonders and with the remainder of the issue judiciously spent, Gila county would have at least the nucleus of an excellent system of roads.

"Naturally, with so much money to be expended, waste would have to be guarded against, but this feature can be satisfactorily carried out, especially since the last session of the legislature provided for a county superintendent of roads, who could give the matter careful attention.

"The roads of this county certainly need to be permanently improved and to my way of thinking, there is no time like the present for beginning this work."

FIRST TRIAL ENDS IN VERDICT OF GUILTY

CHARGE OF HORSE STEALING IS MADE GOOD ON EVIDENCE OF HIS SQUAW

TRIAL JURY BEGINS LABORS

GRAND JURY RETURNS FIVE IN-DICTMENTS AND DISCHARGES
ONE DEFENDANT

The first jury trial to be held at the present session of the district court resulted in a verdict of guilty, in the case of Z. 3, an Apache, better known as Oliver Cromwell.

Oliver and Nellie Can, his squaw, were charged jointly with stealing a horse belonging to Sam Haught of Payson.

Charges against the squaw were dismissed in order that she might be allowed to testify in the case.

When the taking of testimony began, the stories told by Oliver and his squaw were widely at variance.

He claimed that he had taken Nellie into his tepee as his squaw, treated her as a brave should and provided a good home for her. In spite of his kind attentions, Oliver claimed, his squaw deserted him and to make her escape, took Haught's horse.

Nellie had an entirely different story to tell. She claimed that Oliver stole the horse, branded it and appropriated it to his own use.

Other witnesses were examined, the testimony going to break up Oliver's defense.

After argument on the part of District Attorney Shute and L. L. Henry for the defense, the matter was submitted to the jury, made up of E. W. Booker, Arthur Evans, George Cantrall, L. H. Brown, W. A. Galpin, J. C. Boughter, Ed Brunier, R. R. Boyd, L. B. Doan, L. D. Bailey, Lee Carson and Thomas W. Bott.

After deliberating short time a verdict of guilty was returned. The defendant will be sentenced Friday morning.

Grand Jury Indicts

The grand jury held a busy session, returning five indictments and recommending the dismissal of one defendant.

W. A. Hooks, charged with having stabbed Quong Rook, a Chinese restaurant keeper, about a week ago, was indicted on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Joe de Guldo, an Italian from Roosevelt, was indicted as the result of his action in attempting to pass a worthless $100 bill on a local saloon a few weeks ago.

Dolph Diaz was indicted on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Diaz, who claims to have acted in self defense, slashed another Mexican about the body and arms, a few weeks ago.

Lonnie Couch, charged with having burglarized the Brick saloon, several months ago, was indicted on the charge.

Lorenzo Arezia, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, was also indicted.

W. S. Dayton, charged with embezzlement was discharged.

From the personnel of the witnesses examined late yesterday afternoon, it was evident that the shooting of Mike Zigich, or John Colombo, as he was generally known, by Deputy Marshall R. J. Edwards, was under investigation. It is presumed that a report on this matter will be made today.

Trial Jury Sworn In

The trial jury which will decide on the guilt or innocence of defendants who are to be tried at the present term of court, was duly sworn in yesterday morning.

The sheriff's return showed the jury to be made up as follows: L. B. Doan, W. A. Galpin, Lee Ford, Frank Gill, Arthur Evans, Theo. Crandall, E. H. Cooper, H. C. Coffey, L. D. Bailey, Robert G. Anders, L. H. Brown, Thomas W. Bott, H. H. Bru, Harry Fuller, R. H. Egner, John C. Clark, W. D. Claypool, J. C. Boughter, O. T. Clark, A. M. Cobb, Henry Carls, George Cantrall, William Burke, John Carpenter, J. R. Fanning, Eli Handfield, O. Balck, Bert Belluzi, Frank Weston, W. H. Childress, John Dracell, C. M. Cox, W. L. Awbrey, W. P. Greer, Carl Elder, Guy C. Collins, James Bracco, E. W. Booker, John Callan, Ed Brunier, R. R. Boyd and Lee Carson.

J. R. Fanning, A. M. Cobb, Frank Weston, C. Black, H. H. Bru, Harry Fuller, Guy C. Collins, R. C. Anders and E. H. Cooper were excused by the court for cause.

Arthur Evans, who failed to appear, was held to be in contempt and an attachment was issued for him. Later in the day the attachment was quashed.

A special venire of fifteen men was then ordered by the court.

The special venire was made up as follows: J. C. McRae, C. W. Morris, C. L. Baker, W. M. Lewis, Frank Ringgold, Frank L. Toombs, Henry Nichols, Edwin F. Knowles, F. D. Smith, William Fisher, D. S. Herron, Thomas Andrews, J. W. Lively, W. V. Hamilton and William Willis.

Newton Pleads Guilty

With the consent of the court, Lowe Newton, charged with forgery, withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty. He will be sentenced Saturday morning at 9:30.

The trial of Arthur Franks, charged with burglary, was continued until Friday morning at 9:30.
